United Arab Emirates

Where old meets new

Comprising of seven emirates – Dubai, Abu Dhabi, Fujairah, Ras Al Khaimah, Ajman, Umm Al Quwain and Sharjah, the UAE is one of the world's fastest growing tourist destinations, a meeting place for diverse cultures with all the right ingredients for an unforgettable holiday experience.

With some of the finest hotels in the world, miles of golden sandy beaches and warm seas, state-of-the-art shopping malls, exotic souks, exquisite dining options, stunning desert and mountain landscapes, the UAE is a truly unique destination to explore.

Dubai

The centre of our world

Dubai has been described in many ways - the gateway to the Middle East, the City of Merchants and the City of Gold – to name a few.

Dubai is a city of contrasts, a land where tradition meets diversity, historic and modern, from east to west, that blend seamlessly to create a fascinating destination. It is home to some of the world's finest hotels and culinary flare. An abundance of attractions, festivals and activities by day and traditional celebrations to trendy discotheques by night are enough to keep any visitor with plenty to experience.

The numerous shopping malls feature international brands at competitive prices attracting the most enthusiastic shopper at heart. From lazing on pristine beaches to the thrill of hunting down bargains in the souks. Golf enthusiasts can tee-off on one of our championship courses while adventure seekers can try their hand at dune driving, sandboarding, scuba diving, fishing or indoor skiing. Whether you stay a few hours or a few days, experience the vibrancy of the world's fastest growing commercial and tourist centre, home to the world's tallest tower – Burj Khalifa, the world's largest mall – The Dubai Mall, the marvellous Palm Islands, the iconic Palm Jumeirah, all in an architect's playground which continues to raise the bar with ground-breaking developments – Dubai is truly the metropolis of tomorrow.

Wherever your Emirates journey takes you, there has never been a more perfect time to plan a stopover in Dubai.

General Information

Dress code

The United Arab Emirates is an Islamic country and clothing should be modest. In the hot and humid summer months light cotton garments are ideal. During the winter months, when the seasonal average is a pleasant 24°C, light sweaters are recommended. Beachwear is acceptable at beach clubs, hotels and public beaches. During the day, the dress code is fairly casual, although more exclusive restaurants and clubs may expect guests to dress more formally during the evening.

Language

Arabic is the national language of the United Arab Emirates but English is widely spoken and understood. The majority of information signs are in both languages.

Currency and exchange

The monetary unit of the United Arab Emirates is the Dirham (AED), divided into 100 fils. Exchange rate: USD1 = AED3.67

Food and drinks

Most hotels offer local specialities, as well as an eclectic mix of cuisine. Even though the UAE is a Muslim country, alcohol is served at many licensed hotel restaurants, bars and nightclubs. Restaurants outside hotels do not serve alcohol.

Tap water is safe to use, although bottled water is recommended for personal consumption.

Public holidays - fixed

New Year's Day (1 January), Martyrs' Day (30 November) and National Day (2 December).

Public holidays - movable

The Holy Month of Ramadan

The Holy Month of Ramadan is expected to begin in the early part of June 2016 and continue for a maximum of 30 days.

The Holy Month of Ramadan is when Muslims fast from sunrise to sunset. Eating, drinking and smoking in public areas during daylight hours is strictly prohibited with exceptions permitted only for small children and expecting mothers. No food or beverages will be served in any open restaurants during daylight hours.

All Dubai Stopovers featured hotels make concessions for their guests with at least one restaurant open during the day for resident guests. Alcohol will however not be served in restaurants during this time but is served in restaurants and bars only after sunset for non-Muslims. In each hotel, only one bar is permitted to serve alcohol to guests from 2000 hours to 0200 hours. Live entertainment, loud music and dancing are also prohibited during this period.

Many hotels celebrate 'breaking the fast' after sunset and offer Iftar, a great experience while visiting Dubai during Ramadan.

- Child/infant seats for children under 6 years of age are compulsory under Dubai law. Car seats can be pre-booked at USD10 per seat, per way. If the booking is made and car seat(s) is/are not booked, the transfer will not be provided and this service will not be refunded. Infants travel free-of-charge, however, their details must be included in the booking, at the time of booking.

Baggage Allowance

- Baggage allowance per person is 2 pieces (1 suitcase & 1 hand trolley bag or equivalent). For passengers departing from North America, baggage allowance is 2 suitcases and 1 carry-on luggage.
- Passengers arriving with extra luggage must make alternative transfer arrangements at their own cost.

Local Law and Cultural Customs

- Passengers are reminded that photography of military and some government installations is prohibited. With respect to local customs, always ask before taking pictures of Arabs and do not photograph Arab ladies dressed in traditional attire.
- Operating schedules and routes of some of our tours and safaris may change during the Holy Month of Ramadan and the summer months.
- During the Holy Month of Ramadan, no entertainment is provided on the Dune Dinner Safari. Eating, drinking and smoking in public is strictly prohibited and punishable by law. Liquor will only be served after sunset in restaurants and the Dune Dinner Safari.
- Littering is a punishable offence and clients are to be reminded that offenders may face penalties in the form of fines.
- Please refrain from smoking in public areas.
- It is strongly advised that any public display of affection be avoided in public areas to respect local customs.
- While visiting the Sheikh Zayed Grand Mosque, we ask to please respect this place of prayer and dress appropriately in moderate/conservative loose fitting clothing: long sleeves, long skirts and trousers are required.

Tour and Safari Vehicles

- Arabian Adventures safari vehicles are long-wheelbase, four-wheel-drives, which are fitted with safety belts, air-conditioning and are licensed to carry up to six passengers, excluding the driver. By law, passengers must wear their seat belts while the vehicle is in motion.
- Many of Arabian Adventures vehicles are equipped with telephones to provide a constant link with other vehicles in the party as well as the safari base.
- Seating on all Arabian Adventures tours and safaris may not be pre-allocated. During safaris, seating for passengers within one four-wheel drive vehicle will be rotated several times.

Infants and Children

- Infants sharing with parents with existing bedding are accommodated free-of-charge, however the infant(s) details must be included in the booking.
- Selected hotels permit a maximum of one child under 12 years, or one infant to share their parents' room in existing bedding, with the exception of some hotels.
- Some hotels have family rooms that permit a maximum of two children to share their parents' room with existing bedding. These rooms can also be booked for a family of two adults, one child under 12 years and one infant. The child rate includes the cost of breakfast. Please refer to price list.
- Al Maha, a Luxury Collection Desert Resort & Spa does not allow children under the age of 12 at the resort.

Wheelchairs on Transfers, Tours and Safaris

- Arabian Adventures can assist wheelchair bound guests only on those excursions suitable for wheelchair passengers, some of which can only be taken on private basis – please check and ask for details at the time of request. Wheelchairs should be of a foldable design and guests with limited mobility should be accompanied by able bodied companions.
- Guests should be advised at the time of booking that the desert camps used for the Sundowner Dune Dinner are located in the sand dunes and not ideally suited to wheelchair bound passengers (including the on-site wash rooms). However, Arabian Adventures will accept wheelchair passengers for the Sundowner Safari provided a private vehicle has been booked to take the client and travel companions straight to the campsite and no dune drive is involved. For pricing, please contact your local Emirates Office or Travel Agent.

General Health and Safety of Passengers

- Arabian Adventures safaris involve off-road driving through rugged country - which all adds to the excitement. However, because of the adventurous nature of the journeys and the rough terrain covered, passengers should not participate if their health or any pre-existing medical conditions (including heart ailments or back problems) may be adversely affected. For this reason, we regret we are unable to accept expectant mothers, passengers with back conditions and passengers under the age of six years or over 65 years of age.
- The passenger must understand and accept the potential risks and hazards that can be involved in certain tours, safaris and other activities and fully accepts responsibility for ensuring that he or she is mentally and physically capable of participating in the particular tour or safari chosen. All guests must follow any instructions of any tour, safari or other activity, if in the opinion of the tour leader, the passenger's behaviour or physical conditions deems unsafe or unfit to the passenger or general welfare of the group, or if the leader considers that the passenger's general well-being will be put at risk by continuing the tour, safari or other activity, the passenger may be asked to leave the tour without the right of refund.
- Clients may be asked to sign a form of indemnity for certain tours and safaris.
- Arabian Adventures recommend that passengers read the Safety Card held by their safari driver/guide in the vehicle before proceeding on the safari tours.

4.2 By Us

Changes or cancellation

- 4.2.1 It is unlikely that we will need to make any alteration to your travel arrangements but sometimes circumstances change and alterations have to be made. We reserve the right to change your booking at any time.
- 4.2.2 If we make a major change we will advise the lead person on the booking or your Travel Agent as soon as reasonably possible. A major change is one that we make to your booking before your departure that affects an essential term of your contract. Examples of a major change include (but are not limited to) changes by us to:
- (a) a change of accommodation to that of a lower official classification for the whole or a major part of your Dubai Stopover, or
 - (b) a change to the overall length of your Dubai Stopover of twelve or more hours.
- 4.2.3 If we make a major change we will offer you the choice of the following options:
- (a) accepting the changed arrangements; or

- (b) accepting substitute arrangements of comparable standard from us if available (we will refund any price difference if the alternative is of a lower value); or
- (c) cancelling your booking and receiving a full refund of all monies paid to us for the booking.
- 4.2.4 You must tell us which one of the above choices you wish to make within 72 hours of being informed of the major change we are making. If we do not receive notification from you about your choice within 72 hours you are deemed to have accepted the option specified in 4.2.3(a).
- 4.2.5 We shall not be liable for any changes to or cancellation of your Dubai Stopover due to events beyond our control. Examples of events beyond our control include, but are not limited to war or threat of war, riot or civil disturbance, political unrest, terrorist activity or threatened terrorist activity, industrial disputes or threatened industrial disputes, strikes, fire, floods and other natural disasters, nuclear disasters, adverse weather conditions, acts of God, acts of government, closure of airports, failure of a carrier, a hotelier or other person to operate services for any reason.
- 5. Our Liability To You
- 5.1 Our obligation is to take reasonable skill and care in the performance of our contractual obligations, subject to and in accordance with these Booking Conditions.
- 5.2 The Company is not itself a provider of accommodation, ground services, tours or other activities nor does it control the third parties who provide such services in connection with your Dubai Stopover.
- 5.3 We do not accept liability for any injury, illness, death, loss, damage, expense, cost or other claim of any description whatsoever which results from (i) the act(s) and/or omission(s) of the person(s) affected or any member(s) of their party; or (ii) the act(s) and/or omission(s) of a third party not connected with the provision of your arrangements and which were unforeseeable or unavoidable; or (iii) events beyond our control (as defined in clause 4.2.5).
- 5.4 Except in the cases of death or injury, our liability is limited to a maximum of the booking price attributable to the person affected. This maximum applies where you prove that no benefit or enjoyment has been obtained. In all other circumstances, we agree to pay compensation that is reasonable and proportionate for the reduction in value of your booking and any loss of enjoyment you prove subject to the above maximum.
- 5.5 Where properties are not featured in our brochures or other literature or on our website, we will not be liable for any claims that such properties booked at your express request do not satisfy your expectations.
- 5.6 Your booking may be serviced by carriers, providers of accommodation, car rental companies, catering and other parties who have their own booking conditions of carriage and business and over whom we may have no direct control. Their booking conditions may strictly limit the circumstances in which compensation is payable to you by them and you agree to be bound by their booking conditions. Such booking conditions are available from us upon request.
- 5.7 Air travel is subject to various International Conventions that limit the liability of the carriers. International Conventions which may apply include, without limitation, the Warsaw Convention 1929 (as amended) or the Montreal Convention 1999. The carriage by air of passengers and their baggage is in addition subject to the Conditions of Carriage of the carrier concerned. With respect to Emirates flights, please refer to the Conditions of Carriage for Passengers and Baggage, available on www.emirates.com
- 5.8 Save as set out above and as is detailed elsewhere in these Booking Conditions, we shall have no legal liability whatsoever to you for any loss or damage.
- 6. Your Responsibilities
- 6.1 You must ensure that you and all members of your party have valid passports, visas, certificates of vaccination and any other documents required to enter any country you are visiting, including transit stops, prior to your departure. We cannot accept responsibility for any failure to comply resulting in any costs or fines being incurred and we advise you to check with the appropriate passport office(s) or consulate(s) in question if you have any queries.
- 6.2 For your own protection, we strongly recommend that you and all members of your party have comprehensive travel and medical insurance for the full period of your Dubai Stopover. It is your responsibility to ensure that the insurance cover you purchase is suitable and adequate for your particular needs.
- 6.3 If, in our reasonable opinion or the reasonable opinion of the provider of any part of the services to which your booking relates, your behaviour or the behaviour of any member of your party is disruptive, threatening or abusive, causes unnecessary inconvenience or is causing or likely to cause danger, damage, distress or upset, disturbance or annoyance to others or others' property, we may terminate your travel arrangements without any liability on our part. No refunds will be made and we will not pay any expenses or costs incurred as a result of the termination.
- 6.4 It is your responsibility to ensure that you are fit to travel and participate in all parts of the services you have booked and undertaken.
- 7. Complaints
- 7.1 We are committed to offering our valued customers the highest standard of product and consistent service delivery. Should you have a complaint, kindly inform the local Arabian Adventures representative or the accommodation management immediately. If the problem is not resolved to your satisfaction any further complaint should be made to us, no later than 30 days after your return from your Dubai Stopover, in writing: Customer Relations, Emirates Dubai Stopovers, P. O. Box 7631, Dubai, United Arab Emirates or by email: ekdubaistopovers@emirates.com. Please provide as much information as possible, including your Dubai Stopovers booking reference and dates where applicable.
- 7.2 If you fail to follow this procedure we will have been deprived of the opportunity to investigate and rectify your complaint during your Dubai Stopover and this may affect your rights under this contract.
- 8. Feedback
- 8.1 We value your feedback. If you would like to share feedback with us about your Dubai Stopover experience, you can do so by post or email. Please provide as much information as possible, including your Dubai Stopover booking reference and dates where applicable.

Arabian Adventures Booking Conditions

1. Arabian Adventures, PO Box 7631, Dubai, United Arab Emirates (“we”, “us” or “our”) provides tours, safaris, transportation and other activities (“Activities”) to participants (“you” or “your”) either itself or through its suppliers.
2. Any tour sales voucher and all other tickets and coupons issued in respect of the Activities are furnished and issued subject in all respects to these Conditions of Contract and to any and all terms and conditions of the owners, operators, public carriers and such other persons who provide Activities to you. Copies of such terms and conditions are available on request. The purchase of a voucher or the making of a booking entitling you to participate in an Activity shall be deemed to constitute your consent and acceptance of these Conditions of Contract.
3. The full price of any Activity shall be due and payable when a booking is made and we may cancel any booking if the full price of the Activity is not paid to us at least two (2) days prior to commencement of the said Activity. No refund will be payable to you in respect of a booking cancelled less than twenty-four (24) hours prior to commencement of an Activity. Failure to turn up in the designated location for an Activity by the specified departure time shall be considered to be cancellation.
4. We shall be entitled to cancel, alter or omit any part of any Activity for which a booking has been made with or without notice to you and at our sole discretion. In particular, due to the nature of many of the Activities, delays and cancellations may result due to factors beyond our or our suppliers’ control, such as the weather, accidents, sickness, governmental restrictions and other events of force majeure. In such cases, a refund or partial refund may be given at our discretion and/or the discretion of the supplier of the Activity concerned.
5. You understand and accept the potential risks and hazards that can be involved in certain of the Activities. You take responsibility for ensuring that you are mentally and physically capable of participating in the particular Activity. You agree to comply with the instructions in English of any personnel providing the Activity (“Leader”). If in the opinion of that Leader, your behaviour or physical condition is detrimental to the safety, welfare and well-being of the group as a whole, or if the Leader considers that your general well-being will be put at risk by continuing with the Activity, you may be asked not to participate in the Activity without the right to any refund of the price.
6. In particular, some of the Activities are potentially hazardous. Arabian Adventures and its suppliers will use all their experience and, where necessary, the experience and assistance of local guides and other experts, in order to minimise the risk to you. Nevertheless, if you are participating in Activities that are potentially hazardous or against the Leader’s recommendation you may be required to read, understand and sign an indemnity and waiver form in English before participating in those Activities.
7. Where we offer Activities provided by third parties, or issue you with a voucher entitling you to a ticket for an event, we act only as agent for the operator of the Activity concerned or the organisers of that event. The terms and conditions of the operator of the Activity or organiser of the event will apply to you and any refund will be subject to those terms and conditions. We will therefore have no responsibility for the acts or omissions (including negligence) of those operators or organisers or their servants or agents, or for any injury, damage or loss arising in connection with the provision of Activities by such operators or in connection with the event or its organisation.
8. To the maximum extent permitted by law, Arabian Adventures accepts no responsibility for any damage, loss, accident, sickness, injury or death that you or anyone else may suffer or incur arising out of the Activities and/or in connection with your contract with us and/or the operator of any Activities. You are advised to have comprehensive travel and health insurance. All personal effects are at your sole risk at all times during the Activity.
